Unchanged YoY

What This Means: Waukesha County homes are moving at lightning speed — unchanged from last year, signaling no slowdown in buyer competition for well-priced listings.

Buyers

- Pre-approval ready before you search
- Expect to decide within 24–48 hours

Sellers

- Well-priced homes sell in days, not weeks
- First weekend showings are critical

Inventory & Months' Supply

Active listings hit 1,086 units (+6.9% YoY) — single-family at 825 units (+8.1%). Months of supply: 1.95 months county-wide.

Buyer Advantage
Seller Supply

For Buyers

- More options than a year ago — inventory rising
- Still competitive — act fast on new listings

For Sellers

- Firmly seller's market — well below 5–6 month balance
- List now before seasonal inventory peak

Sale-to-List Price Ratio: 102.3%

Single-family homes are closing above asking price on average — up from 102.0% a year ago. The $1M–$3M segment jumped to 101.8% (from 96.4%).

Why It Matters

Sellers receive more than list price. Buyers must budget above asking in most price bands.

$300K–$700K Core Band

Ratios consistently above 100% — multiple offers remain common.

📋 Market Implications

- For Buyers: Offer at or above list; include escalation clause
- For Sellers: Price right — strong ratios reward correct pricing

NEW SUPPLY

New Listings: 566 Homes

YoY Change

+11.2% increase from prior year — third consecutive month of strong listing growth (March +30.8%, April +17.5%).

Why It Matters

Seller confidence is returning. More listings = more buyer choice, but demand is absorbing supply quickly.

For Buyers

- More homes to choose from than in 2025
- Set up alerts — new listings move in days

For Sellers

- Rising competition — presentation matters
- List soon to beat seasonal inventory peak
