Market Signal

Homes sell almost instantly

What This Means: Properties are selling nearly the moment they hit the market — an ultra-competitive environment with no slowdown in sight.

Buyers

- Be ready to offer same day
- Pre-approval is essential

Sellers

- Expect fast, multiple offers
- Minimal time on market

Inventory & Months' Supply

Active listings: 901 units (+16.6% YoY). Months of supply: 2.2 months — well below the 6-month balanced market threshold.

2.2 MONTHS
SUPPLY

63% BELOW
BALANCED MARKET
THRESHOLD

For Buyers

- More options than last year
- Still highly competitive

For Sellers

- Demand absorbs new listings fast
- Seller's market firmly intact

Sale-to-List Price Ratio: 101.4%

Homes are selling above asking price, though slightly moderated from 101.8% last year. Buyers must come in strong.

Why It Matters

A ratio above 100% means sellers receive more than list price — bidding wars remain common in Waukesha County.

Market Implications

- For Buyers: Offer at or above list price
- For Buyers: Waiving contingencies is common
- For Sellers: Strategic pricing drives competition
- For Sellers: Expect offers above asking

NEW SUPPLY

New Listings: Growing Supply

Year-Over-Year Change

Inventory rose +16.6% to 901 active listings. Single-family: 652 units (+17.9%). Townhouse/Condo: 237 units (+16.7%).

Why It Matters

More listings give buyers options — but demand still outpaces supply at 2.2 months.

For Buyers

- More homes to choose from
- Expand search criteria now

For Sellers

- More competition — price right
- Market-ready homes sell fastest
